The concept of Regular Residence

Macau is known for its multicultural environment, and many of us have either a friend, a colleague or know someone who has applied for Macau residency.

When we talk about the application for a residence permit in Macau, the most talked-about issues are the concept of regular residence and the criteria of 183 days' stay in the MSAR. Both are considered by the authorities as essential requirements to support the decision to approve or reject the renewal of a residence permit that will pave the way to permanent residence.

通常居住的概念

澳門以其多元文化環境而聞名，我們中的許多人或是朋友、同事或者認識其他人申請了澳門居留。

O conceito de Residência Habitual

Macau é conhecido pelo seu ambiente multicultural e muitos de nós temos um amigo, um colega ou conhecemos alguém que tenha requerido a autorização de residência em Macau.

Quando falamos sobre pedidos de autorização de residência em Macau, os temas mais recorrentes são o conceito de residência habitual e o critério de 183 dias de permanência na RAEM. Ambos são considerados pelas autoridades como requisitos essenciais na decisão de deferimento ou indeferimento de uma renovação de autorização de residência que abrirá caminho para a residência permanente.
